
This version is available at https://strathprints.strath.ac.uk/55037/

Strathprints is designed to allow users to access the research output of the University of Strathclyde. Unless otherwise explicitly stated on the manuscript, Copyright © and Moral Rights for the papers on this site are retained by the individual authors and/or other copyright owners. Please check the manuscript for details of any other licences that may have been applied. You may not engage in further distribution of the material for any profitmaking activities or any commercial gain. You may freely distribute both the url (https://strathprints.strath.ac.uk/) and the content of this paper for research or private study, educational, or not-for-profit purposes without prior permission or charge.

Any correspondence concerning this service should be sent to the Strathprints administrator: strathprints@strath.ac.uk

The Strathprints institutional repository (https://strathprints.strath.ac.uk) is a digital archive of University of Strathclyde research outputs. It has been developed to disseminate open access research outputs, expose data about those outputs, and enable the management and persistent access to Strathclyde's intellectual output.
Outdoor learning: Scottish primary teachers’ perceptions of training and professional development

Leanne Mattu, PhD Researcher, University of Glasgow

Supervised by:
Dr Bethan Wood & Mr Carlo Rinaldi, University of Glasgow
Dr Dave Roberts, SRUC

Funded by the Mains of Loirston Charitable Trust
(Registered Charity Number SC038006)
www.mainsofloirston.org/
The need for further training

“Part of the problem for existing teachers appears to have been the lack of opportunities for them to learn about outdoor opportunities as part of their own training.”

(Nicol et al., 2007, p.13)

- Lesson ideas
- How to encourage and empower staff
- Sharing resources
- Practical skills
- How to access to funding / financial support (Primary)

(from Christie et al., 2014, p.60)
Methods

Survey

Case Studies

- Interview with teacher(s)
- Group interview with ~5 children
- Interview with farmer(s)
"I think it’s an important part of my role as a teacher, to give children opportunities to learn outdoors."
Survey respondents (2)

"I enjoy teaching outdoors."

Proportion of respondents selecting each response option

Response Options

0=Do not agree at all
1=Agree a little
2=Agree
3=Agree a lot
4=Agree very much
5=Strongly agree

No response

0% 0% 2% 11% 38% 47% 2%
"I feel that I have had sufficient training/CPD on outdoor learning."

- 3% responded 0
- 7% responded 1
- 20% responded 2
- 36% responded 3
- 22% responded 4
- 12% responded 5
- 0% did not respond

Response Options:
0 = Do not agree at all
5 = Strongly agree
"I think probationer teachers are usually well informed about outdoor learning."

Survey responses (2)

Proportion of respondents selecting each response option

Response Options

0=Do not agree at all

5=Strongly agree

0% 5% 10% 15% 20% 25% 30% 35% 40% 45% 50%

3% 9% 28% 37% 10% 4% 9%

Graph showing the distribution of responses to the survey question.
Teachers’ learning

“...a lot of it is just what you teach yourself. There are CPD opportunities out there...but a lot of it is just what you learn on your own, or asking colleagues...”  (Teacher, Case Study 3)

“It is that idea of cascading, people might go out with maybe one person from the school and then pass the knowledge on to everyone else”  (Teacher, Case Study 1)
Learning about farm visits

“...last year we went to [that farm] because it had been recommended by a member of staff who had been before” (Teacher, Case Study 8)

“... we came across the RHET website and then, 'cause one of the teachers is a farmer’s wife...and they basically guided us to there and we just saw it on the website to organise visits” (Teacher, Case Study 4)
Teachers’ learning at the farm

"I learned new things at the farm visit."

Proportion of respondents selecting each response option

Response Options
0 = Do Not Agree At All
5 = Strongly Agree

- 2% for 0
- 3% for 1
- 6% for 2
- 8% for 3
- 18% for 4
- 63% for 5
“I have got teachers coming out and taken aback by how little they know”
(Farmer, Case Study 5)

“They need to have actual farm days for teachers only”
(Farmer, Case Study 3)

CA: She’s not a farmer so she might not know everything, she’s not maybe an expert of it so she wants...
CB: She wants to know some stuff as well
CA: Uh-uh, it’s not just for us, she might want to know things
(P4 boys, 7-8 years old, Case Study 3)
What guidance would teachers find useful?

“CPD sessions - actually at a farm to show the potential.”
(Survey Respondent #150)

“...get them onto the farm for CPD courses.”
(Survey Respondent #191)

“A 'hands on' CPD session for staff would be valuable. It would help to alleviate any concerns around hygiene or safety.”
(Survey Respondent #15)
The importance of farm visits

"Children need to visit a farm to fully understand where food comes from"

Response Options

0 = Do not agree at all
5 = Strongly agree

Proportion of respondents selecting each response option
Conclusion

• The ‘outdoors’ in Curriculum for Excellence
• Teachers’ perceptions of their training and professional development needs - still more to do
• The importance of farm visits
• ‘Hit and miss’ in teacher learning about farm visits

Student teachers should have an opportunity to visit a farm as part of ITE/ initial training.
Thank you.

References:

Project website: www.farmvisitsstudy.co.uk
Or email: l.mattu.1@research.gla.ac.uk